The Annual Cultural Programme of Dr. B. C. Roy college of Pharmacy & AHS (BCRCP) was held in the college premises (Netaji Open Air Auditorium) in a befitting manner on 11th May, 2023 evening. It was a wonderful evening which included music, recitation, dance, story-telling, and drama. The Netaji Open Air Auditorium was decorated based on the theme 'Halloween' which is a celebration of spooky and scary stuff, like ghosts, witches, monsters, and haunted houses. The decoration included jack-o'-lanterns (carved pumpkins) and fake spider webs, lanterns and paper bats.

Our students were dressed in various looks and were excited for the eve. The programme started with the Inaugural session and the students solely took the responsibility of the programme although coordinated by the Event Management Committee. The opening dance of Meghna Bowra (B. Pharm., 2nd Year) was enthralling and was followed by B. Pharm., 4th Year students Priyangi Ghosal and Anirban Ghosh's Instrumental performance. Group dance performances were enchanting enough and the students were encouraged for their applaudable performances.
