Report on Entrepreneurship

Intra-College Entrepreneur's Meet "The Novateur" 2017

BCRCP family was enthralled with "Novateur 2016" and thus the college authorities and our students cheered for the event "NOVATEUR 2K17".

The programme was organized in the same manner and the exhibition was put up with various ideas and handcrafts, model presentation, art & design, games stalls etc. were put up with their innovative business plans.

All the dignitaries, faculty members and students were asked to assemble in BCRCP open ground by 10 A.M. Student leaders namely; Tania Sadhu and Sujit Nayek were made volunteers to inaugurate the programme.

Dr. Subrata Chakraborty, Director, BCRCP and Dr. Subhabrata Ray, Principal, BCRCP assembled into the stage for inauguration. Our senior faculty members and dignitaries collaborated for the lamp lighting session. Dr. Indrani Bhattacharyya also contributed in the session.

After the lamp lighting session and the welcome song, Our E-cell Incharge, Dr. Subhro Prakash Bhattacharyya declared the stall open at 11 A.M. Innovative ideas were put together in our annual exhibition. All the stalls were given a stall number accordingly. Our students arranged the areas according to the number. The exhibition was grand where our students showcased their talents by selling food items, handicrafts, model presentations, art and design and even gaming zones were arranged. All the participants had already enrolled their names in a group of maximum four. Healthy eatables were provided in food stalls like 'MAGIC MOMOS' selling momo in just Rs.20 (5pc. per plate). Chicken pakoras with chutney also became a source of attraction. All these were hand-made by the participants and sold with great ease.

Students sold Fuchka in unique fusion combos like plain fuchka, meetha fusion and green fusion fuchkas which attracted girls mostly in their stalls.

Handicrafts design was another stock of interest for craft lovers and creative humans. Various hand-made decorative items made with simple art-paper and colored pencils and chart papers. Self designed pen stand, jewellery box, baskets, vase, pencil box were displayed in the stall for sale.

Creativity in nail art using various nail polish shades were done in the stall itself. Participants showed their creativity into these self innovative stalls.
