On behalf of the academic administration of the college, we thank you all for presenting your opinion well before the NBA visiting team about the systems and facilities prevailing in the college. We think that you have spoken your hearts out only for the betterment of the college. The experts also expressed their satisfaction over the quality of the students and suggested some improvements that we require.

It is advisable that student community must not take recourse to any sort of bitterness amongst themselves. All has gone well. We have only one path to choose - that's the path of development. And we hope the student community will cooperate in future too.
